The following topics were discussed:

- Business:
  - Historical Timeline:
    - Tad Achey, co-owner of Exponet USA discussed the firm's graphic capabilities and different options for producing the timeline as a banner display that can travel easily.
    - As a next step, John F motioned and Tim seconded that we ask Exponet to provide the board with a digital rendering and samples of similar work to review.
    - David G. envisions the timeline as a developmental project for a traveling exhibit, which could be displayed at the museum, library, public schools, train station, etc.
  - Visitor Experience Planning:
    - David G. discussed his transition from a paid role with the city to a volunteer advisory role with the History Commission, Heritage Museum, and Berlin House development.
- History Discussion:
  - Wayne and Tim recapped their field trip across the river with Paula Foley to investigate the ruins of Peacher's millhouse. Another trip may be planned in the future.

The meeting was adjourned early at 3:00 pm without a single interruption by passing trains, a record at this location!
